Live the Liturgy

Once hailed with blessings and Hosannas as He approached the Mount of Olives, the same God is nailed to a Cross amid cries for His crucifixion. What an ironic twist of fate. What an unjust end to this compassionate, simple, and loving life. Life's ironies and cruelties are dramatically witnessed today and throughout this Holy Week. The thread of God's love is woven through it all as it reveals God's transforming, redemptive, and salvific plan. It is all necessary: the hardship and the joy, the suffering and the glory, the disappointment and the inheritance. When life takes a turn for the worse, we often question where God is. Are we ready to walk through our lives as did Jesus, with a persistent trust that regardless how difficult our journey, all will work out in the end. "Father, into Your hands I commend my spirit."

Hosanna to the Messiah!

While Jesus would not be crowned an earthly king, Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem has many parallels to the Messianic expectations of the Hebrew people. Before entering, Jesus requisitions a donkey from its owner. In the ancient world, kings had this right. Yet the animal that Jesus requests is rare - a colt upon which no one else has sat yet. Yet, it's a donkey. This is no great war-charger, no magnificent animal. Jesus acts with all the authority of an earthly king, yet His Kingdom is one of simplicity and peace. As the disciples throw cloaks over the donkey, the crowd spreads theirs on the road. This ancient gesture dates back to the line of kings descended from David. Not only are these physical kingly gestures, but the crowd of followers cries out in jubilation and praise. The Messiah has come to Jerusalem!

Proclaiming the Mystery of Faith

Today we begin a whole week of gathering in prayer and liturgy to proclaim the mystery of our faith. The week of Christ's passion with his triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Today our church vestibule becomes the suburban town of Bethany just outside Jerusalem. We are invited by St. Vincent the Paul to celebrate this Palm Sunday: "No one loves you more than God does, and no love is more desirable than God's love. If only we could come to appreciate God's love for us, our whole lives would be transformed. The liturgy of this week carries us deep into the mystery of our redemption. In the Gospel on Monday Jesus is anointed, and speaks of his burial. In Tuesday's Gospel he foretells his betrayal. On Wednesday he speaks of his way of suffering. Jesus spent those days in prayer and reflection in the Great Temple of Jerusalem.

On Holy Thursday, our sanctuary becomes the Upper Room and we celebrate the great and grave feast of the Last Supper. Once again he gives us his body, serves us through his ordained priests, and completes his gift of love by commanding us to love one another as he loved us. This feast is so laden with love and memories of the Lord that it is a time of special graces and calling of the heart. Holy Thursday late this church becomes the Garden of Gethsemani. It is filled with whispers, shadows, and the sharp shouts of angry people. Christ undergoes the dark night of the soul.

On Good Friday we do not have Mass. Mass is the offering of Calvary renewed, but on Good Friday we dare not offer Mass. It is as if on Good Friday Calvary bursts into every time and place so that we stand at the very foot of Christ's cross while he offers his sacrifice for our redemption. The account of his wounds and his death is read, and we kiss his cross and receive his body and blood in the Blessed Sacrament. The aisles of our church will become the Via Dolorosa or the Streets of Sorrows. We will follow his tortured walk in his bleeding feet in the Stations of the Cross.

On Holy Saturday, his body lay in a borrowed tomb. We will come to the church sorrowful but full of hope. In the evening liturgy we make the final preparation for the glory of our Lord's resurrection.

May God's blessings be upon us during this Holy Week!

Rozpoczynamy Wielki Tydzień

Niedzielą Palmową rozpoczynamy Wielki Tydzień wspomnieniem pełnego chwały wjazdu Chrystusa do Jerozolimy. Tym uroczystym dniem Chrystus kończy swą krótką, bo tylko trzyletnią działalność publiczną. Jezus opuszcza Betanię, dom gościnny swoich przyjaciół - Marii, Marty i Łazarza i w otoczeniu swoich uczniów i ludzi uroczyście wjeżdża do Świętego Miasta. Wszyscy przygotowali Mu naprawdę królewskie przyjęcie, słysząc było śpiew: “Hosanna! Błogosławiony, który przychodzi w imię Pańskie!” a także ślano drogę, którą przejeżdżał gałązkami palm i oliwek.

Niedziela Palmowa jest dniem pełnym radosnego i podniosłego nastroju, gałązki, które przynosimy do Kościoła, są wyrazem naszego włączenia się w uroczyste powitanie Chrystusa, przez mieszkańców Jerozolimy. Dzisiaj mamy przed naszymi oczami, jakby dwa obrazy Chrystusa. Jeden to obraz Chrystusa triumfującego – Chrystus Pan i Król, drugi obraz to Chrystus odepchnięty, osamotniony, bezsilny, cierpiący.
