Live the Liturgy

If you really want to get to know someone, invite them to dinner. Sharing a meal with someone opens up the door to a deeper, more intimate, and more authentic encounter. When we gather around a table, we are more vulnerable and are reminded not only of our need for food and sustenance, but also the love of friends and community. We are meant to be together. Meals can be opportunities not only for authentic meetings, but for healing relationships, for understanding one another better, and for renewal. Jesus invites us to dine with Him once again at today's Eucharist. He receives our pain and blesses our wounds. We are forgiven, set straight, renewed, and reconfirmed in our task of discipleship. Love is celebrated here again. May we bring that love to those who need it most, especially those we may find difficult to love and to those who have hurt us. Share with them the bread of compassion and the wine of mercy.

May Devotions

During May we have an opportunity to thank Mary, Mother of God, for all the blessings and favors that we received from God through Her intercessions. The 5:30 p.m. Mass, Tuesday through Thursday and 6:00 p.m. on Friday in May is celebrated, followed by the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and singing of the Litany to the Blessed Mother. Please join us.

*First Communion is not only the introduction of a child into fuller community participation;
it is also a reminder to adults of their own faith commitment.*

*At Baptism the parents of these children committed to raising them in the faith
so that now we can welcome them to our Eucharistic Table.*

Please join us in praying for them and their families as they continue their journey of faith.

Third Sunday of Easter

It is the most profound, beautiful and most deeply personal question we can ever ask or be asked by anyone: 'Do you love Me?' Peter is asked this very question by Jesus three times. Peter had run from the Cross and had denied Jesus three times. Cursing and swearing he cried, 'I tell you I do not know Him'. And then the cock crowed. Now, here to prick his conscience at early morn'ng by the fire – with bread and fish, with a miraculous draught, and asking for His love three times, Jesus reminds Peter all that He has done for him and implicitly forgives him by commissioning him to go forth and feed the lambs. Peter has to be fed by Christ by love and prayer first.

Jesus is telling Peter that out of love for him He must hand over his fate to the Lord in His service. John was writing this account after Peter had died a martyr's death in Rome by crucifixion. Jesus sees the potential in all of us too to do great things for Him and out of love for Him in the Church and in the world as His witnesses, but we all have to come to that point where we have to answer the question for ourselves – the leap, as it were, to an adult faith, by answering the question Jesus asks of Peter today and which is extended to all of us - you and me - 'Do YOU love Me?'

Trzecia Niedziela Wielkanocna

W dzisiejszej Ewangelii Chrystus zadaje trzykrotnie pytanie św. Piotrowi, czy Go kocha. W rzeczywistości Chrystus pyta o to każdego z nas. Ciężko jest odpowiedzieć na to pytanie. Jeśli się kocha, to zazwyczaj jakąś konkretną osobę, którą widzimy. Trudno jest kochać Boga, którego się nie widzi. Są ludzie, którzy uważają że kochają Boga, ale swoich bliźni już nie. Św. Jan w Pierwszym Liście zadał pytanie, jak można kochać Boga, którego się nie widzi, a nie kochać bliźnich, których się widzi. Otóż najlepiej można sprawdzić, czy kocha się Boga, poprzez relacji z innymi ludźmi. W każdym więc razie tak jak traktujemy drugą osobę, tak też odnosimy się do Chrystusa. „Byłem głodny, a daliście mi jeść, byłem spragniony, a daliście mi pić...”. „Czy kochasz mnie?”... To pytanie powinno po dzisiejszej Mszy św. rozbrzmiewać w sercu każdego wierzącego. I powinien on również na nie odpowiedzieć. Jeśli odpowie pozytywnie, musi sprawdzić, czy aby na pewno realizuje to w swoim życiu. Jeżeli zaś negatywnie, powinien się zastanowić, co musi zrobić, by Boga pokochać. Miłość bowiem do Boga przewyższać powinna każdą miłość ziemską. Zostaliśmy przez Niego obdarowani tak wielkim darem miłości, jakim była ofiara na krzyżu, że naszym życiowym obowiązkiem jest starać się to odwzajemnić.

Życzenia Komunijne

W uroczystym dniu Pierwszej Komunii Świętej życzymy Wam obfitych Łask Bożych, a Sakrament Eucharystii niech umacnia w Tobie wiarę, nadzieję i miłość.

Nabożeństwa Majowe

Tradycyjnie jak każdego roku w naszym Kościele odbywają się nabożeństwa Majowe od wtorku do czwartku o godzinie 5:30 p.m. a w piątek o 6:00 p.m. Mszą świętą, a po Mszy świętej będzie wystawienie Najświętszego Sakramentu i śpiewanie Litanii do Matki Bożej. Zapraszamy do udziału w tym pięknym nabożeństwie.

Jedzenie dla Potrzebujących

W tym Wielkanocnym czasie zwracamy się do wszystkich o pomoc dla tych którzy są w potrzebie. Przy wejściach do kościoła są pudła na ten cel abyśmy mogli podzielić się z potrzebującymi.

Why Do We Do That? - Catholic Life ExplainedQuestion:

How do I bring God into the work of my daily life?

Answer:

Whatever your daily work, you have an opportunity to encounter God and to follow His commandments in love. In the New Testament, we see that most of the Apostles didn't have a previous religious position. They were fishermen, tax collectors, and political activists. St. Paul was a tentmaker. Among the saints, we have doctors, lawyers, farmers, and stay-at-home moms. No matter your daily tasks, God can be present there!

One way concerns behavior. Start with an examination of conscience. Look at areas where you tend to struggle to imitate Christ at work. Do you gossip? Does brimming frustration become impatience at home? Pick one sin you struggle with, then choose a virtue to strengthen that area. If you tend to speak poorly of your co-workers, resolve to stop and to say one kind thing a day instead.

Another way relates to perspective, particularly your perspective of others. Jesus' incarnation reminds us of the value of every human being. Jesus is God, and each of us is created in God's image. When you encounter another person, you have an opportunity to see God in a new place and a new way - in that person in front of you. Genuinely listen to them and be present to their concerns. Loving your neighbor is loving God! Our relationship with God and the love He inspires in our hearts shouldn't remain only at church on Sunday. We can - and should - let our faith animate our lives!

Pope Francis Prayer Intentions for the Month of May

Each year, the Holy Father asks for our prayers for a specific intention each month. You are invited to answer the Holy Father's request and to join with many people worldwide in praying for this intention each month.

Spring' into Action! FEED the HUNGRY!

Spring is here and typically this time of year, especially after the Easter holiday, donations to the food cupboard decline. The Sister Regis Food Cupboard is located in one of the highest poverty pockets in the city. Can your budget 'SPRING' for JUST ONE CAN of food EACH WEEK? Your 'One' donation may be the only food on the 'menu' of the poor.

Suggested items: Rice, Cereal, Canned fruits, Baked beans, Pinto beans/blackeye peas, Soups, Tuna fish, Powdered milk, Fruit juice, Peanut butter/Jelly, Pasta and sauce, Canned sweet potatoes, Mustard/ketchup, Crackers, Cans of ravioli/spaghetti, Pancake mix and syrup.

Sanctuary, Vigil Lights and Flowers for the Altar

Honor a loved one (living or deceased), remember a special occasion, or send a thank you with flowers for the altar or vigil light. Please contact our parish office at 467-3068.
