Live the Liturgy

We have heard the story of the Good Samaritan so many times. Have we ever realized that it is an enemy and outcast who is the hero of the story? Freed from laws that limit acts of mercy and compassion, the Samaritan becomes the example of how to love God by loving our neighbor. Our minds know what our faith teaches, and our mouths know what words to speak. Ultimately, deep down in our conscience, we know how we ought to act. Yet, as we encounter each new day, do we always do what we are called to do? Our neighbors live next to us and far away. They are down the street, sitting beside us, living in Mexico, Honduras, Ecuador, Guatemala, Poland, Russia, China, Korea, and Iraq. Our neighbors are even found in people who want to hurt us. How do we love them as Jesus asks us to? How we answer this question will determine how much we really love God.

*A very warm welcome is extended to all who have come to St. Stanislaus Church to worship this weekend.
We are grateful to our parishioners and we welcome our guests who visit us this weekend.*

Feast of St. Bonaventure

It's well known that the Franciscan Order was incredibly influential throughout history. But one of the most challenging times for a new movement is surviving the death of the founder, St. Francis. Bonaventure joined the Franciscan Order almost two decades after the passing of St. Francis. More than his academic skill, however, he was known for his deep devotion to Christ. He was elected the General Minister of the Franciscan Order, right in the thick of controversies. St. Bonaventure weathered these crises with grace, restructuring the order when necessary and offering a more organized perspective on the insights of St. Francis.

"The remedy for fear is trust in God."

XV Sunday in Ordinary Time

Loving isn't too difficult, right? Many of us are surrounded by kind, lovely people trying to do the right thing. Indeed, to "love your neighbor as yourself" seems like it should be easy enough. Treat people like you would like to be treated. Bring the new neighbors some baked goods. Chat with the bank teller about his holiday weekend. Write an occasional card to your sister "just because." There were probably varieties of these acts of kindness in Jesus' day. Perhaps substituting figs for cookies. But "exchange pleasantries with the traveling cloth merchant" isn't the example Jesus gives.

"A man fell victim to robbers... they stripped him and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead." The righteous pass by the scene of the dying man. The hero of the story is the one on the margins of Jewish society, who perhaps would not have been welcomed, in other circumstances, by the man now in the ditch. His neighborly love causes him to halt his journey, to tend wounds, and to pay for the man's care out of His own savings. Are we interruptible? Are we attentive to the hurts of others? Are we generous with our money and possessions?

In the past few weeks, who has crossed your mind as someone in need of help? Perhaps it's an acquaintance suffering from cancer. Maybe you were invited to donate or volunteer to a local social cause, but it just won't stick in your mind or schedule to make it happen. The needs of people are many and varied. We can't help everyone, but God does place opportunities in our path for compassion and courageous love. This week, be "the one who treated him with mercy."

Why Do We Do That? - Catholic Life Explained*Question:

I've heard that faith is a theological virtue. What does that mean?

Answer:

To say a virtue is theological means that it comes as a gift from God. St. Thomas Aquinas, a Dominican monk who crafted the famous arguments for the existence of God, wrote: "This alone is the true knowledge of God: to know that God is beyond knowing." God is transcendent. This word comes from the Latin "transcendere," meaning "to climb beyond." When something is transcendent, it exists beyond our normal range of experience. Philosopher Peter Kreeft put it simply: "God is always more."

While God created us in His image and likeness, too often we re-create Him in ours. We project our deepest hopes, our subliminal fears, and our hidden dreams, and conjure up our own image of what God could be. Yet God can never be limited to our own perception of Him.

That's where faith comes in. We read in the Catechism that "faith is the theological virtue by which we believe in God and believe all that He has said and revealed to us and all that the Holy Church proposes for our belief" (CCC 1814). We can know God through reason, to a point. As human beings, we want to know and understand the world around us, but God isn't in the world around us. He's beyond it. The best way to come to know God is not through our own clever mental maneuvering, but through trusting in God's revelation of Himself. We might think we know who God is, but the only way we can have any idea is if we trust, through the virtue of faith, who He has revealed Himself to be.

Never miss an opportunity to do good !

It's NO Picnic for the Poor...

Many of us enjoy the summer months with picnics and other gatherings but the poor are praying that they will have food to put on their table. You can help them have an indoor 'picnic' by bringing in at least one food item each week.

Here are the foods that the Sr. Regis Food Cupboard needs the most: macaroni, spaghetti sauce, oatmeal, chicken soup, crackers, juice and canned mixed vegetables/fruit, tuna fish, peanut butter and jelly. CEREAL is ALWAYS tops on the list.

Altar Flowers

The floral centerpiece at the main altar for this weekend Masses is offered in loving memory of John Warzecha, by his wife Emily Warzecha.

Congratulations to Our Graduate

Our Congratulations goes to Christopher J. Mark, grandson of Irene Lichwiarz, who has graduated from Clarkson University with Computer Engineering degree.

XV Niedziela Zwykła

Jezus jest miłosiernym Samarytaninem. To On pierwszy patrzy na nas ze wzruszeniem i troską. Oddaje siebie całego, aby nas uratować. Czyni wszystko, aby nas uleczyć. Życie wiary polega na otwieraniu się na tę Jego miłość, którą przeżywamy w Kościele, szczególnie poprzez słowo i sakramenty.

Jesteśmy wezwani, aby stawać się Samarytanami. Doświadczając miłości Jezusa stajemy się zdolni do kochania innych ludzi. Do zauważania ich cierpienia, pomocy, troski, miłosierdzia. Każdy otrzymuje swoją własną drogę, na której może spotkać ludzi potrzebujących różnych wyrazów naszego miłosierdzia.

Nowenna do Świętej Anny Rozpocznie się 17 Lipca

Od wielu już lat w naszym Kościele odprowadzana jest Nowenna do świętej Anny – Matki Maryi i Babci Jezusa. W naszej Parafii jest wielu czcicieli, którzy z pobożnością czczą św. Annę, a która przez swoje wstawiennictwo wyprasza nam potrzebne łaski i błogosławieństwa. Nowenna do św. Anny rozpocznie się 17 Lipca po wieczornej Mszy św. Zapraszamy wszystkich na to piękne nabożeństwo.

Support Those Who Advertise in Our Bulletin

The Saint Stanislaus Parish Bulletin is provided for our parish through the generosity of the advertisers on the back pages of the bulletin. This week we thank: Fioravanti Florist Inc.

We had a wonderful turnout for our annual Parish Picnic. The food was delicious and weather was great. We drew our first early bird winner for $75 and Tessie Pospula won the prize. Please continue to buy the raffle tickets and support our church. We are asking for many more volunteers to help make this years festival a success. We still need a shuttle driver but many many more hands are also required. Please call Jan at 585-729-7878 and leave a message. I will get back to you ASAP. Thanks,

Jan Vorndran

Festival Captains and Workers Meeting

Festival Captains and Workers Meeting will take place on Wednesday, July 17th at 7:00 p.m., during which there will be the second Early Bird drawing of $50.

Anyone interested in volunteering at the festival is very welcome to come to this meeting and find out in which areas of the festival their time and abilities will be most valuable.

Festival Raffle Tickets!

The festival raffle tickets are available after the Masses, in the rectory during business hours and during the Coffee Hour. The prizes are the same as last year (8X$500). The second Early Bird drawing will be during workers meeting this Wednesday, July 17th. Please help support our annual festival by buying the festival raffle tickets!
