A Prayer for Our Parish

Lord, we give you thanks for Your presence in our parish. We thank you for the many men, women, and children who helped form us into a community of love and hope. Give us the wisdom and strength to continue to love and serve you and one another. Amen.

Live the Liturgy

We all have a tremendous amount of responsibility. Every day presents more challenges and lists of things we need to accomplish. Life, however, is more than just to do lists. Life is more about who we are and how present we are to what is happening around us. Our relationship with God is the same. It is not just about doing the right things or showing up in the right places, even though these are certainly important. What is more important is the quality of our presence in God's presence. How attentive are we to His revelations of presence to us? If life's demands, however noble they be, overly consume us, we will miss being surprised by God's presence: in creation, in sacrament, in our brothers and sisters, and in ourselves. Listen carefully to Martha and Mary's story today.

St. Anne's Novena

We honor St. Anne and we pray to her for her intercession to grant us blessings and favors. This week's St. Anne's Novena will be on:

- ♦ Sunday July 21: after the 11:00 a.m. Mass
- ♦ Monday, July 22: after the 8:00 a.m. Mass.
- ♦ Tuesday, July 23: after the 5:30 p.m. Mass
- ♦ Wednesday, July 24: after the 5:30 p.m. Mass
- ♦ Thursday, July 25: after the 5:30 p.m. Mass

Friday July 26, Feast of Joachim and Anne, parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary and grandparents of Jesus, Mass at 5:30 p.m. We are inviting all the members of Ladies Society and all the parishioners to take part in this beautiful Novena. Please plan on coming and please spread the invitation to all!!

XVI Sunday of Ordinary Time

Active and contemplative. At work and at rest. These are dynamics we all face in our lives, and if we're honest, we might not always balance perfectly! In this Sunday's Gospel, our daily tensions play out in two sisters. Mary "sat beside the Lord at His feet listening to Him speak." Martha, on the other hand, is "burdened with much serving." This, as it turns out, is not necessarily "the better part."

All of us reading this have some sort of labor we engage in. We have different trades or careers. We have responsibilities as family members, some of which may take up most of our time. In the time of Scripture, showing hospitality to guests was one of the most important values in society. Our work is important. Jesus Himself spent decades as a carpenter. So what's the problem with Martha? Martha is burdened, anxious, and worried. Not only that, but she resents her sister's choice. "Tell her to help me," she demands of Jesus.

How easy it is to get very busy doing good things. We need to provide for our families and plan for retirement. We need to make sure children are clothed, fed, and educated. Our committees, ministries, and sports schedules need to stay on track. However, without a balance of work with rest, without contemplation in the midst of our action, we will miss the point. While many parts are required for our life in the world to function, the better part is our relationship with God. This week, make time in your busy schedule to sit at Jesus' feet. Maybe this is 20 minutes with Scripture, participating in a daily Mass, or a quiet walk alone in the park. Receive what Christ wants to speak to you.

Why Do We Do That? - Catholic Life Explained

Question:

July 22 is the feast of Mary Magdalene. I've heard a lot of stories about her, but who was she really?

Answer:

Mary Magdalene has been the subject of speculation and scholarship over the last 2,000 years. Mary Magdalene makes her first named appearance in Luke 8:2. She is one of several women following Jesus. Luke specifically mentions that Mary had previously been delivered from demonic possession. Whatever her life looked like before she met Jesus, it wasn't good! Because of this association with being a repentant sinner, Mary Magdalene has been associated with other similar stories in the Gospel, such as the woman caught in adultery or the woman who bathes Jesus' feet with her tears.

Mary Magdalene shows up again by name at the end of the Gospels, when she stands with the Blessed Virgin Mary at the foot of the Cross. Mary is also present in the garden of the Resurrection. She is one of the women who goes to bring spices to Jesus' tomb, where they find the stone rolled away. Mary stays in the garden weeping, believing His body has been stolen. Jesus approaches her and calls her by name, and she becomes the first witness to the Resurrection! While many of the details of Mary Magdalene's life have been lost to time, she is an example of powerful conversion, deep faith, and intimate love for Christ.

Saint Anne

Although Saint Anne is not mentioned in the Bible, she is the Holy Mother of Mary and grandmother of Jesus. When we pray the St. Anne Novena, we are asking help from our Blessed Mother's mother! Saint Anne's feast day is on July 26th, so the St. Anne Novena is traditionally started on July 17th — but you can pray it anytime. Devotion to St. Anne began early in the history of the Catholic Church. As she was favored by God to become the mother of the holy Virgin Mary, she is often invoked as the Patron of mothers as well as for relationships, among other things.

Saints Joachim and Anne

Saints Joachim and Anne are the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary and grandparents of Jesus. Mary had good, faithful parents who raised her with a love and devotion to God like none other except Jesus Christ Himself. Joachim and Anne serve as role models for parents and both deserve to be honored and emulated for their devotion to God and Our Lady Mary, the Mother of God.

XVI Niedziela Zwykła

Liturgia dzisiejszej Niedzieli wprowadza nas w gościnne progi posiadłości Abrahama oraz do domu zaprzyjaźnionych z Jezusem: Łazarza, Marty i Marii. Abraham przyjmuje z uprzedzającą gościnnością trzech wędrowców – przyjmuje Pana, który daje obietnicę narodzin syna.

Ten sam Chrystus nasz Pan, jest pośród nas. Otwórzmy gościnne nasze serca na słowo Boże, na samego Pana. Czym chata naszego wnętrza bogata, tym rada. Módlmy się dzisiaj abyśmy w każdym człowieku, który nawiedza nasz dom, umieli rozpoznać Chrystusa – zwiastuna Bożych zamiarów.

Nowenna do Świętej Anny

Od wielu już lat w naszym Kościele odprawiana jest Nowenna do świętej Anny – Matki Maryi i Babci Jezusa. W naszej Parafii jest wielu czcicieli, którzy z pobożnością czczą św. Annę, a która przez swoje wstawiennictwo wyprasza nam potrzebne łaski i błogosławieństwa. Nowenna do św. Anny rozpocznie się 17 Lipca po wieczornej Mszy św. Zapraszamy wszystkich na to piękne nabożeństwo.

It's NO Picnic for the Poor...

Many of us enjoy the summer months with picnics and other gatherings but the poor are praying that they will have food to put on their table. You can help them have an indoor 'picnic' by bringing in at least one food item each week.

Here are the foods that the Sr. Regis Food Cupboard needs the most: macaroni, spaghetti sauce, oatmeal, chicken soup, crackers, juice and canned mixed vegetables/fruit, tuna fish, peanut butter and jelly. CEREAL is ALWAYS tops on the list.

Returning God's Gifts

"For behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last." ~Luke 13:30

Our standards in our society are so different from God's standards. We often rate or rank people by what they have, how powerful they are, or how successful they are. Jesus reminds us that God will not judge us by the same standards.

Faith Formation Registration forms for school year 2019-2020 can be found on the bulletin boards at the entrances to the church or at the parish office.
