Live the Liturgy

We believe in one God who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The reality that God is three distinct Persons yet One is something that is difficult for the mind to grasp. But, understanding God in this way is not impossible for the contemplative heart. We need only to look around us to see our triune God playing and interplaying with all of creation with each of His Persons manifesting itself. God our Father abounds in and through creation. God the Son beats in every human heart, in love, in tenderness of mercy, and in our neighbor. God the Holy Spirit breathes life into all things and guides the course of time and the seasons, bringing wisdom and guidance to all things. Breathe in the height and depth of God's triune presence and may your heart contemplate His presence and glory.

Peter's Pence Collection: Next week, we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Please be generous. For more information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

Father's Day Blessing

Gracious God and Father, our First Father,
You are the One who has brought us to life in this world You created.

You created us and everything around us.

We turned away from You and only after disappointing You did we return Your love.

Look with favor on our earthly fathers.
They helped create us in Your image.

We have disappointed them,
but have come to realize just how important they are to us.

Bless all our fathers, living and deceased,
with comfort and health.

We bring all their needs to You and ask for strength so they may live worthy lives.

We ask all this in the name of Your Son,
our model of what it means to reverence our fathers.
In Christ's name. Amen.

The Most Holy Trinity

If God is one, how can He be three? The most intelligent theologians have racked their brains over the problem, and the most prayerful ones have surrendered to the mystery. How it can be, we can't explain. But what it means, we can join! Our God is an ever-unfolding relationship. Theologians speak of the immanent and economic Trinity. The Trinity is immanent in the sense that the Persons are close and entirely sufficient within Godself. In other words, God doesn't require us for God to exist. The word economic is rooted in the Greek word for management of a household or family. The Trinity is economic in the sense that God has invited us to be part of Him. He's growing the family! We see the dynamic here in today's Gospel.

Jesus says the Spirit "will take from what is mine and declare it to you" and that "everything that the Father has is mine." There is relationship here. Jesus speaks and is the Word of the Father. The Holy Spirit speaks what He hears from the Son. The Father gives everything to the Son, and the Spirit speaks that inheritance over us. God invites us into the Trinitarian family!

The doctrine of the Trinity isn't something to brush off as overwhelming. After all, "the Spirit of truth... will guide you to all truth." This occurs most perfectly in the Church, who protects all that has been revealed by God in Scripture and gradually unpacked in tradition. We can trust the declarations of Her theologians and learn from the lives of Her saints. The Trinity may be a mystery, but, by the grace of God, we can have real truth about who God is and how we can love like Him.

Why Do We Do That? - Catholic Life Explained

Question:

I accept on faith that God is a Trinity of Persons, and I know it's something we can't fully understand. Should I just accept that, or should I try to learn more?

Answer:

There's a legend from the life of St. Augustine. As the early Church grappled with the identity of Christ and his relation to the other Persons in the Trinity, the holy theologian wrote a book about the Trinity. The story goes that, while he worked on the piece, he took a break to walk along the seashore. He came upon a small boy who had dug a hole in the sand. He was carrying a bucket, which he'd fill up with seawater and pour into the hole. Back and forth he walked. St. Augustine gently chided the young boy, "You can't pour the whole ocean into that hole." The boy responded, "And you cannot fit the whole Trinity into your mind."

The Trinity is a mystery! Our finite mind can't comprehend the infinite God. Of course, the lesson isn't about giving up trying to understand God. St. Augustine did write that treatise, after all. The hunger to know more about God is good. We can read books about the Trinity or about the Fatherly love of God, the life of Christ, and the movement of the Holy Spirit in our lives. More than that, we can deepen our life of prayer. The heart of our Trinitarian teaching is "God is love." The Three Persons are an infinite relation of love between one another. Real understanding of that comes less through our heads but through our hearts.

Top to Bottom

Everyday Stewardship

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

The Church is one, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic. That oneness is mirrored for us in the Holy Trinity: one God in three Persons. We are a diverse community with different cultures, backgrounds, realities, and gifts, but we are truly one. When we take seriously our stewardship way of life, we see our lives as not truly belonging to ourselves. The Church that was established by Jesus and fortified by the institution of the sacraments cannot be destroyed. Our actions can either bear witness to that reality or it can bring offense. Let us pray that enough of us will choose the holy way so all the world may see that God is real, Jesus is alive, and we are ONE.

Bring a Friend to Church!

When the Holy Spirit descended onto the Apostles at Pentecost, they were so filled with the Spirit that they rushed out into the street to tell everyone the Good News. The Holy Spirit guided them, and inspired them, to set aside their fears and to go out and boldly proclaim that Jesus is Risen! Their lives were transformed, and many who were unaware of Jesus' life came to the faith that day. That same Spirit dwells in each of us, and calls us to reach out to those around us, and like the Apostles, invite everyone to the Faith. Please prayerfully consider asking a friend, colleague, teacher, or stranger to come and celebrate the Holy Mass with us and to know God's love first hand. We are the Body of Christ, please reach out and grasp the hand of another and invite them to come to church with us.
