Live the Liturgy

How can we ever succeed at truly loving God and our neighbor and fully embrace Gospel living? Achieving this goal without an intimate connection with Christ is impossible. The Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Christ, connects us with God in a unique and most intimate way. His very life and presence is wedded with ours. Being forgiven and nourished, we are given the strength and conviction to pick up our wounded and broken lives and be living heralds of Good News. Our world is broken and needs authentic, living witnesses to bring it back to truth. Nourished by the Body and Blood of Christ, are you ready to be sent?

The Eucharist

On feasts such as this, we recall miracles like the wedding feast at Cana or the multiplication of the loaves. Perhaps we remember the road to Emmaus, when Jesus was made known "in the Breaking of the Bread." In these stories, God satisfies our hunger in a supernatural way. But the cry of the human heart goes much deeper. "Man cannot live on bread alone," after all. In the Eucharist, God's supernatural presence takes the form of physical food. In the absence of physical nourishment, the body slowly begins to break down. Without an intentional pursuit of spiritual nourishment, our souls will similarly suffer. Our inner lives need rest and rejuvenation. We need daily connection with our Creator. We need to receive from the One who feeds us. The radical reality of the Eucharist speaks to our deeper aches, to the God who alone satisfies.

Peter's Pence Collection:

Today is the Peter's Pence Collection, a worldwide collection that supports the charitable works of Pope Francis. Funds from this collection help victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Take this opportunity to join with Pope Francis and be a witness of charity to our suffering brothers and sisters. Please be generous today. For more information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ Corpus Christi

Why read the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves this Sunday? Here we see the mystery of our physical and spiritual realities intermingling. Too often, they can feel separate. When we go to Mass, how often we appear more ordinarily human rather than stretching toward the divine.

Perhaps our experience of the Eucharist is fairly mundane. We notice when a new sacramental wine has been selected. We feel the varying textures of the host and wonder if they'll ever bring back the one that tasted distinctly like wheat. As we shuffle up to the front and stride back to our pew, we notice the looks on people's faces and the clothes on their backs. We get distracted by the crying child, the man blowing his nose, and the mechanical sound of the air conditioner kicking in. How human we are, how earth-bound, how material!

And how good God is for entering into these selfsame realities. How good God is for proclaiming "the Kingdom of God," for "healing those who needed to be cured," for having mercy on a tired and hungry crowd. How many of the crowd noticed what had been done for them? Did they realize their dinner was a miracle? How often do we miss the deeper reality of the Eucharist? Even if in the moment of receiving Communion we don't experience radical ecstasy and don't feel any different, there is a tangible reality to cling to. Our God loves us enough to become bread for us, not only to feed us but to be fed upon by us.

Why Do We Do That? - Catholic Life Explained

Question:

How do you explain "Real Presence" to children.

Answer:

The First Communion class is filled with excitement to the point of bursting! They are just awestruck by every new thing they learn about Jesus. Their enthusiasm is contagious as they rattle off the names of the things in church, the vessels and vestments used at Mass, and the names of their pastors and priests. Of course, they know Christ can do anything because he's God. He comes to us in Holy Communion because He loves us so much that He wants to be with us. And He comes to us in the form of Bread and Wine. We really receive Him in the Eucharist.

Sometimes it is easier to explain this to children than to adults. Their faith and trust in Jesus is not limited by the questions and doubts that often come with the question of how He does it. Rather, they focus on the question "why," and the answer is something they can easily grasp: love. Christ wants to be with us because He loves us. Nothing is purer in truth or in faith. Not even the theological explanation of transubstantiation, or philosophical reasoning or symbolic references, come close. Christ takes on the form of Bread and Wine to be simple and approachable, so that no one is afraid or turned away. His love for us is complete and total. We try to love Him the same way in return. For a child, it is simple. For us adults, we keep trying. "Unless you turn and become like children, you will not enter the Kingdom of Heaven" (Mt 18:3).

Holy Hour on Friday & Chaplet of Divine Mercy

Each Friday join us at 5:00 p.m. for the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. Also every Friday we pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy after the 6:00 p.m. Mass.

Peter and Paul, Apostles

Lord Jesus Christ, You called Saint Peter from a life he knew, to follow You alone, giving up all he'd known before. Despite his failings and lack of faith in You and himself, you entrusted to him the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, granting him such faith that he embraced martyrdom. You called Saint Paul from the life he knew, a life of such zeal that he became misguided, hurting You by hurting those who followed You. You changed him from an angry persecutor to the greatest missionary the Church has ever seen, and to one who welcomed death as the means to see You. When I am called to do Your Will, change my spirit and grant that I can give up the little You ask of me, when Peter and Paul gave so much. Amen.

The Nativity of John the Baptist

The Nativity of St. John the Baptist or Birth of John the Baptist, on Wednesday, June 24, is a Christian feast day celebrating the birth of John the Baptist, a prophet who foretold the coming of the Messiah in the person of Jesus. Ordinarily the day of a saint's death is usually celebrated as his or her feast day, because that day marks his entrance into heaven.

Uroczystość Najświętszego Ciała i Krwi Chrystusa
Boże Ciało

W Kościele katolickim uroczystość liturgiczna dla uczczenia Jezusa Chrystusa w Najświętszym Sakramencie, obchodzona jest po oktawie Zesłania Ducha Świętego. Jest świętem nakazanym. Zewnętrzną formę święta stanowią procesje prowadzone do 4 ołtarzy. Procesyjnie przenoszona jest monstrancja z Najświętszym Sakramentem, którą na zakończenie udzielane jest uroczyste błogosławieństwo.

Parafialny Piknik w Niedzielę 30 Czerwca!

Parafialny Piknik odbędzie się w niedzielę 30 Czerwca w parafialnym ogrodzie od godziny 12:00 do 4:00 po południu. Jest to wyraz podziękowania i wdzięczności dla wszystkich Parafian i ich rodzin oraz przyjaciół naszej Parafii, którzy z sercem i poświęceniem pracują i troszczą się o Kościół św. Stanisława. Serwujemy hamburgery i hot dogs oraz napoje. Sałatki i desery można przynieść do podzielenia się z wszystkimi.

Święci Apostołowie, Piotr i Paweł

Kościół umieszcza w jednym dniu, 29 czerwca, uroczystość św. Pawła wraz ze św. Piotrem nie dlatego, aby równał go w prymacie z pierwszym zastępcą Chrystusa. Chodzi jedynie o podkreślenie, że obaj Apostołowie byli współzałożycielami gminy chrześcijańskiej w Rzymie, obaj w tym mieście oddali dla Chrystusa życie swoje oraz że w Rzymie są ich relikwie i sanktuarium.

Gratulacje dla Absolwentów

Absolwentom z naszych rodzin chcemy złożyć serdeczne gratulacje z okazji zakończenia kolejnego etapu edukacji. Prosimy podać imiona absolwentów do biura parafialnego, (467-3068) abyśmy mogli wydrukować w biuletynie i złożyć im gratulacje.

Sr. Regis Food Cupboard- Summer Help Needed

With the school year ending and summer vacations fast approaching many children who live in poverty will not have the breakfasts and lunches they received each day in school. We may not be able to solve all of the world's problems but God has given us this opportunity to solve this problem to Feed the Hungry!

Join in by bringing in at least ONE of the foods listed in the bulletin each week. Cereal is consistently in greatest needs. In addition, canned fruit, canned collard greens, canned beets, pork & beans, tuna fish, peanut butter and jelly are also needed. As always, ANY food items you are able to donate are greatly appreciated. Thank you for answering God's Call to do His Corporal Works of Mercy.

What is Your Attitude?

The attitude of Christian Stewardship recognizes that one's own special talents were given by God. These skills could have been given to someone else also. But they were given to you to use for God's purpose. The same attitude of stewardship recognizes time as a loan made by God to his children. Manage time well.

Support Those Who Advertise in Our Bulletin
