Independence Day

Today throughout the United States, we celebrate our freedom. Our rights are protected and opportunities abound. We recognize that freedom has a cost, one we celebrate and honor on days such as this. It's good to honor those who fight for our country, who may well pay the ultimate price for the liberties we're afforded. As faithful Catholics, we recognize that there is more to freedom than simply being at liberty to make our lives what we want them to be. St. John Paul II reminds us: "Freedom is not just doing what we can, it is doing what we ought." We become freer within ourselves and within our relationships when we choose what is right and good. When we choose sin, we become trapped in egoism - less free, not more. This Independence Day, let's continue to pursue virtue and good character and encourage others to do this same.

A very warm welcome is extended to all who have come to St. Stanislaus Church to worship this weekend. We are grateful to our parishioners and we welcome our guests who visit us this weekend.

Live the Liturgy

"No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the Kingdom of God." Jesus' words may seem a bit harsh but are directly on target. The life of discipleship can be costly. Upholding the tenets of the Gospel can put us at odds, even with those most close to us. Jesus never misses an opportunity to spend time with outcasts and sinners. It matters little to Him whether doing so breaks a Sabbath law. The Gospel may seem unrealistic, but it is the Gospel nonetheless. We respect the dignity of all persons, from conception to natural death. We work on behalf of justice, which calls us to be with the poor, lonely, confused, and broken. The old "eye for an eye" mentality no longer applies when it comes to dealing with those who hurt us. When Jesus asks you to follow Him, will you go?

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Have you ever heard that the Gospel is radical? In our times, we hear that word and think of fundamentalists, radical activists, or extremists - people who go beyond limits to achieve their goals and may not consider themselves bound by normal propriety or morality. Their ethos might not be so different from James and John in today's Gospel. "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from Heaven to consume them?" This isn't so foreign to some of the stories of the Old Testament. Yet Jesus rebukes them. He won't be exacting in the way his contemporaries expected. There will be no radical rain down of fire and brimstone. Jesus is radical in another way: the call to discipleship.

"The Son of Man has nowhere to rest His head." "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the Kingdom of God." "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks back to what was left behind is fit for the Kingdom of God." These can be difficult passages to read. These are not normal things to hear! It can be easy for many of us to avoid the exacting nature of the Gospel, which might not be what we think it is. James and John wanted to set the bar high for others on the outside and to punish those who didn't meet that standard. Jesus sets the bar high for His disciples, those who say they want to follow Him. He may be using some hyperbole, but it's only to send a clear message. This is a radical call, one that has a cost. To truly put God and others first, before ourselves, will involve sacrifice. How is Jesus asking you to be radical today?

Why Do We Do That? - Catholic Life Explained

Question: This time of year, I attend a lot of weddings. Why do Catholic weddings need to take place in a church?

Answer:

Technically, there is a clause in Church law that could allow for weddings to take place outside of a church, in a suitable space under special circumstances, but it requires the rare permission of the bishop. But the meaning of marriage goes very, very deep, and the Church has a vested interest in protecting that meaning. As Catholics, we don't see a wedding as an event that needs a pleasing backdrop.

Marriage is a sacrament, both an occasion of joyful promise and symbolic solemnity. It is a spiritual event. The loving bond of marriage symbolizes the mystical union between Christ and His Church. The man and woman profess lifelong vows of fidelity, and they receive supernatural grace from God to keep their promises. Receiving the Sacrament of Marriage in a church has broader symbolic meaning for the couple as well. Marriage isn't simply two people in isolation from the world around them. Marriage is the joining of families and the beginning of a new, holy mission in the life of the couple. Weddings are sacred occasions, and it's fitting that they occur in sacred spaces.

Saint Stanislaus Vacation Bible School will take place on July 8-12 from 9:00 a.m. till noon. Grades K-6. Volunteers: Grades 7+. Registration Forms for children and volunteers can be found on the church bulletin boards and parish website. For more information please contact Pam Moore at 467-3068 or Pamela.Moore@dor.org

Sr. Regis Food Cupboard- Summer Help Needed

With the school year ending and summer vacations fast approaching many children who live in poverty will not have the breakfasts and lunches they received each day in school. We may not be able to solve all of the world's problems but God has given us this opportunity to solve this problem to Feed the Hungry! Join in by bringing in at least ONE of the foods listed in the bulletin each week. Cereal is consistently in greatest needs. In addition, canned fruit, canned collard greens, canned beets, pork & beans, tuna fish, peanut butter and jelly are also needed. As always, ANY food items you are able to donate are greatly appreciated. Thank you for answering God's Call to do His Corporal Works of Mercy.

XIII Niedziela Zwykła

Zdanie, które rozpoczyna dzisiejszą Ewangelię, jest niezwykle istotne dla zrozumienia całej Ewangelii według św. Łukasza: Gdy dopełnił się czas Jego wzięcia z tego świata, postanowił udać się do Jerozolimy (Łk 9, 51). Większość zdarzeń, mów, dokonanych przez Jezusa i przez Niego wygłoszonych, św. Łukasz umiejscawia właśnie w czasie wielkiej podróży z Galilei do Jerozolimy. Nie chodzi tutaj o zwykłe przemieszczanie się, lecz w tym kryje się coś bardzo istotnego, a mianowicie, Jezus wstępuje ku Wielkanocy, to znaczy idzie, aby oddać swoje życie, zmartwychwstać i zesłać Ducha Świętego. Jezus idzie świadomie na spotkanie ze śmiercią, aby pokazać, że solidaryzuje się z człowiekiem we wszystkim, także w śmierci, która to dla każdego człowieka jest czymś najbardziej tajemniczym, której się lęka. Przechodzi więc ze śmierci do zmartwychwstania, aby przede wszystkim pokazać każdemu człowiekowi, że jego droga jest podobna do Jezusowej.

Action Alert on Commercial Surrogacy!

Governor Cuomo has prioritized passage (by the end of this session in June!) of dangerous legislation to allow surrogate motherhood for profit. The bill would enable the buying and selling of children and the exploitation of women, and would lead to an increased reliance on IVF (in vitro fertilization) and the destruction of more human embryos. Please let your elected officials know that you oppose this legislation. Take action now! Go to www.nyscatholic.org, hover over Take Action!, click on Latest Action Alerts, scroll down and click on Maintain the ban on surrogacy to send a quick email message to your representatives in Albany. While you're there, please check out the rest of the Latest Action Alerts—all issues of life and death! Breath of Life Ministry- Thank You!

Generous Parishioners = Grateful Parents = Happy Babies

Thank you to all who donated so generously to the Breath of Life 'Baby Drive'! We were able to deliver several carloads of clothing, diapers, formula and other baby necessities to the organizations that work with mothers of unsupported pregnancies and save the lives of pre-born babies. We pray that you will continue to support the Breath of Life Ministry with your prayers and donations to our various outreach projects that promote a Culture of Life.

Through the intercession of the Immaculate Conception and St. John Paul II, may God continue to bless you all!

With wholehearted gratitude and prayers,

Dorothy Hayes and Sonja Stenlik- Co-Chairpersons

St. Stanislaus Parish Picnic this Sunday

Father Roman invites all to spend a wonderful afternoon in a family atmosphere! Our annual parish picnic will take place this Sunday, June 30th from Noon till 4:00 p.m. on the parish grounds.

Thanks to our many volunteers who have helped us make close to 13,000 pierogi for our Polish Arts Festival this year. We are ready to go. We have a great need for many more volunteers to help with the set up and work the Festival on 8/02 and 8/03. Please sign up at the picnic or call the rector at 467-3068 during office hours. We especially need someone to drive the shuttle between Franklin and the Church. If you can, please call either Magda at the Rectory or Jan at 729-7878. Please remember to purchase your raffle tickets also.

Jan Vorndran, Festival Co-chair

Festival Raffle Tickets!

The festival raffle tickets are available after the Masses, in the rectory during business hours and during the Coffee Hour and also during the church picnic this Sunday. The prizes are the same as last year (8X$500). The first Early Bird drawing will be during church picnic this Sunday, June 30th. Please help support our annual festival by buying the festival raffle tickets!
