Live the Liturgy

We do not need to use a lot of words in order to pray well. Keeping things simple often works best, and it appears to be the form of prayer most preferred by Jesus. The simplicity of the Lord's Prayer, the Our Father, gets quickly to the heart of all of our important relationships in life and sets us straight. Praying simply provides proper focus and helps us develop greater trust in God's Providential Care. We never know how each day will unfold and cannot control a good measure of what happens to us. What we can control is the disposition we bring to life and how much we trust and hope in God's desire to make all things new and right. Pray simply and listen deeply. Our Father is calling.

A very warm welcome is extended to all who have come to St. Stanislaus Church to worship this weekend.

*We are grateful to our parishioners and we welcome our guests

Marian Consecration

Do you have a desire to be closer to our Blessed Mother, know her better? Or, do you have a desire to know our Lord better, love Him more and follow Him more closely? Consider a special retreat called 33 Days to Morning Glory! St. Stanislaus parish will be offering this mini-retreat six Saturday afternoons, beginning in October. The sessions will be about 90 minutes. You will receive a book with short readings for each day and you will grow in your understanding of Mary's role in the life of a Catholic and come to love her more. Come to Coffee Hour on August 25 to hear more about this retreat. Brochures with more information will be available at that time.

"The past does not belong to me; the future is not mine; with all my soul I try to make use of the present moment."

~St. Faustina

Feast of St. Martha

On July 29th, we celebrate the feast of St. Martha, unofficial patron of workaholics and busybodies everywhere. Martha appears several times in Scripture. One passage we heard in our recent Sunday Gospel. Jesus has visited the home of Martha and Mary. Mary sits at the feet of our Lord, soaking in His teaching. In the meantime, Martha is washing dishes, preparing hors d'oeuvres, and playing the hostess. Sound familiar? John's Gospel doesn't shy away from Martha's active nature either. After the death of their brother Lazarus, Martha is the first to greet Jesus, and while she's quite confident in Jesus' power to heal, she's the first to warn Him of the possible smell should the tomb be opened. While Mary often gets the credit for contemplative holiness, we can't forget that pragmatic is a saint, too! As we strive to place Jesus in the right perspective, making Him King of our hearts and over all our daily tasks, we can know that we're in good company. St. Martha, pray for us!

XVII Niedziela Zwykła

W niedzielnej Ewangelii Jezus uczy swoich uczniów, w jaki sposób powinni się modlić. Podpowiada, że kluczowymi postawami na modlitwie są bezgraniczne zaufanie Bogu, otwarcie się na Bożą wolę i wytrwałość. Jezus zapewnia przy tym, że żadna z ludzkich modlitw nie zostaje bez odpowiedzi ze strony Boga. Problemem może być tylko, czy uczniowie będą „dostrojeni” na odpowiednią częstotliwość, aby tę Bożą odpowiedź odpowiednio odebrać, a także, czy będą na tyle cierpliwi, by na tę odpowiedź poczekać.

Jezus nie gwarantuje uczniom, że Bóg momentalnie i literalnie wypełni ich oczekiwania. Obiecuje, że ich modlitwy zostaną wysłuchane i otrzymają pomoc Ducha Świętego, by mogli zgodnie z Ewangelią rozwiązywać swoje problemy i prostować ścieżki swojego życia.

XVII Sunday in Ordinary Time

Spiritual stockpiling isn't an endless rotation of rosaries and novenas, it's accumulating emotional "goods" to meet your needs. Perhaps it's a collection of material objects you treasure. Maybe it's a preoccupation with money. It could also be relationships, making sure there's always enough friends and connections to never really feel alone. It's our tendency to let things add up so that we won't quite need God to fulfill our inner life. Yet in this Sunday's Gospel, we have that inescapable petition from the Our Father. "Give us each day our daily bread." Give us this day our daily bread implies enough for the next set of steps, but not enough to stockpile. So here's the big question: Do we trust God to give us what we need? At the Last Supper, Jesus said He would never leave us orphaned. God will not abandon us. And surely He wouldn't ask us to pray for what He does not intend to give.

Of course, sometimes our prayers for daily help can seem to go unanswered. Today's Gospel has advice for that, too. "I tell you... he will give up to Him whatever he needs because of his persistence." Our spiritual stockpiling increases our self-reliance and decreases our openness to God's possibilities. Be persistent in your pursuit of God! Trust that He will keep His promises to

Many of us enjoy the summer months with picnics and other gatherings but the poor are praying that they will have food to put on their table. You can help them have an indoor 'picnic' by bringing in at least one food item each week.

Here are the foods that the Sr. Regis Food Cupboard needs the most: macaroni, spaghetti sauce, oatmeal, chicken soup, crackers, juice and canned mixed vegetables/fruit, tuna fish, peanut butter and jelly. CEREAL is ALWAYS tops on the list.
