Live the Liturgy

Humility is often misunderstood as feeling inferior about ourselves and carrying around feelings of unworthiness. For many, humility is not considered a strength of character but a negative attribute and sign of weakness. Conversely, in fact, authentic humility is found in the person who is firmly grounded in reality, able to be honest with him or herself, and in right relationship with others and God. A humble person understands his or her place in life and who they are. While placing themselves at the service of others, they are comfortable in their own skin and able to step aside and let others go first. Knowing our proper place in life, offering appropriate respect, and looking to the needs of others are things that will enhance our lives and the lives of our brothers and sisters. Are you humble?

A very warm welcome is extended to all who have come to St. Stanislaus Church to worship this weekend.

*We are grateful to our parishioners and we welcome our guests
who visit us this weekend.*

Prayer for Students

Dear Jesus,
Thank you for the gift of learning!
I want to grow closer to you
in everything I do at school.
In math and science, help me to see your beautiful plan in the world.
Help me to discover new stories
and values as I read and write.
In arts and music, help me to be creative.
In sports, help me to treat my teammates
and my opponents fairly.
Help me to learn new skills
in technology.
Jesus, you are the perfect teacher.
Help me to listen with open ears,
an open heart, and an open mind
to all my teachers at school.
Help me to treat my classmates
with care, kindness, and respect.
Thank you, Jesus, for school!
Amen.

80th Anniversary of World War II

This Sunday at the Polish Mass we will pray for all who died during the World War II. Members of the Polonia Civic Center will take part in this commemoration. Members will process their organizations and take part in it. After the Mass during the Coffee Hour there will be a short speech and personal reflections from some of the parishioners who were in Poland at that time.

XXII Sunday in Ordinary Time*Gospel Meditation - Encourage Deeper understanding of Scripture

Can you imagine if Jesus threw a party? From the wedding feast at Cana, we know He wouldn't let the wine run out. From this Sunday's Gospel, we know there would be quite a lively array of guests! We also knew who the most important people would be - everyone. Jesus advises throwing a party that turns everything upside down. Everyone should assume they're the least important attendee, and the guest list shouldn't include the neighborhood "who's who." Rather, we should go looking for "the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind" and hope they RSVP. Jesus describes a particular posture towards our own hospitality.

Parties are about the other people. "Do not recline at table in the place of honor." How often can small talk become a one-upmanship of job promotions, home renovations, and our children's achievements? We've all been to parties where being the most interesting guest is the highest achievement. Yet so often, we know the best party guests are the ones who listen well to our stories. Whether we are guests or hosts, we have the opportunity to look on others with humility and awe.

Parties are opportunities to serve. Jesus advises us to be careful who we invite "in case they might invite you back and you have repayment." Does Jesus literally mean we shouldn't invite our friends over? Of course not! But he does invite us to special consideration when we offer hospitality. When we invite people over to our home, what motivates us? Who we want to spend time with? Who we'd like to impress? These ultimately have only ourselves in mind. How about asking: Who could use some extra care right now? Who could benefit from a fun evening out? In other words, who can I serve?

Why Do We Do That? Catholic Life Explained*Question:

What is the virtue of humility?

Answer:

In many ways, humility is the foundation of the spiritual life. It's the virtue by which we know ourselves accurately in relation to God and others. Humility reminds us that we are not the center of the universe. We recognize that we are created beings, totally dependent on God. We are nothing apart from Him. The more we recognize this, the more we're able to open ourselves to God's grace working in our lives. The closer we grow to God, the more we can love others. Humility also recognizes that we're "on par," so to speak, with others. Made in the image and likeness of God, we are all equal in dignity.

Growth in humility is not an easy process. It can mean accepting the humiliations and embarrassing mistakes of our life, learning from them graciously, rather than ignoring them or blaming others. It also means responding to those in authority with respect. We can practice humility by not bulldozing ahead or assuming our opinion or way of doing things is always right. Consider asking yourself: "I wonder what so-and-so would think of this?" It's also important to remember that humility isn't only the opposite of pride. It's also the opposite of excessive self-debasement. We've all experienced the negative self-talk that ignores God's gifts in our lives and in our own person. True humility thanks God for His many gifts... and recognizes that He was the One to give them.

Want to Grow in Holiness, But too Busy?

Join us on Oct. 12, as we begin a 33-day preparation for Marian Consecration. For six weeks, we'll individually read about and reflect on four Marian giants: St. Louis de Montfort, St. Maximilian Kolbe, St. Teresa of Calcutta, and St John Paul II. They'll teach us the secrets to drawing closer to the Heart of Jesus through the Heart of Mary. In our weekly meetings, Saturdays, 1:30--3:00 pm, we'll share our insights within our small group and then watch a 30-minute video. The video by popular author and speaker, Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC, brings our individual reflections and group experience into a clear and live-able focus.

If you're looking for a simple way to be spiritually renewed, develop a deeper relations with our Merciful Savior, and grow in holiness, join us for 33 Days to Morning Glory Small-group Retreat. (If you are unable to be present on Saturdays, you may do the retreat in your home. But be sure to sign up to receive the book.) Pick up a flyer at the church entrances and contact Sr. Theresa or the parish office prior to September 22. 585-454-6766 or 585-351-9981.

XXII Niedziela Zwykła

Oprócz pokory i bezinteresowności Jezus ukazuje także trzecią postawę. Mówi do nas: „Odplatę otrzymasz przy zmartwychwstaniu sprawiedliwych”. Mistrz z Nazaretu zachęca do myślenia perspektywicznego. Chodzi więc o dokonywanie takich wyborów, które służą człowieczeństwu. Czyż nie jest to antidotum na bezkrytyczny odbiór programów telewizyjnych czy radiowych? Skąd jednak czerpać wzorce, aby nie pogubić się w swoich wyborach? Odpowiedź jest jednoznaczna: z Bożych przykazań! Módlmy się, abyśmy umieli wybierać i rozróżniać, co służy, a co jest szkodliwe dla naszego życia, zdrowia, ducha.

Uczyńmy to słowami św. Augustyna:
„Niech odwrócę się od siebie, by skierować się wyłącznie ku Tobie. Ty bądź mi zawsze obrońcą. Niech mnie ogarnia lęk przed sobą, a bojaźń synowska przed Tobą, bym znalazł się wśród wybranych Twoich!”

Cytat św. Matki Teresy z Kalkuty

„O sobie nie mam nic do powiedzenia. Jestem zwykłą zakonnicą, jakich wiele. Pan powierzył mi pewną misję, i staram się ją realizować, jak tylko mogę...”

80 Rocznica Rozpoczęcia II Wojny Światowej

Fall- Back to School Food Drive!

Now that school is back in session many school age children receive breakfast and lunch at school. But, many times these same children come home to an empty cupboard or refrigerator and often go to bed hungry. Parents are trying to make at least simple meals but struggle to have the needed ingredients. Your donations of even JUST ONE can, box or bag of food can provide at least something to ease the pain of hunger. The GREATEST NEEDS are: crackers, canned fruits and vegetables, spaghetti ie. macaroni-elbow, rotini, bows and sauce PLUS CEREAL and rice.

Sympathy

In your Christian charity you are asked to remember in your prayers: Stanisław Bednarczyk and Cecylia Smulka, whom God has called to eternal rest. May they rest in peace, and may the risen Lord strengthen their families at their time of loss.

Support Those Who Advertise in Our Bulletin
