Catholic Ministries Appeal

You should have received a mailing from the Bishop's office this week detailing the many ways that your donations to the CMA are used throughout our 12 county diocese. Included in the mailing is a return envelope for your donation and/or pledge. There are more such envelopes in the pews. They can be mailed or you can save postage by dropping it into a collection basket or bringing it to the Rectory office.

This year we hope that you will join with us in a show of love and support for our church by making a donation or a pledge to the CMA by December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. We hope to reach our goal of $47,315 by then.

As a special thank you and in recognition of your generosity every time we get 10 pledges or donations of any amount, we will place a white candle on Mary's altar with the names of those 10 individuals. Those candles will all be lit in honor of the feast of the Immaculate Conception at the evening Mass on Saturday, December 7. Thank you and God Bless you.

Mass of Remembrance for Our Parishioners

It has become a tradition in our church to have a special Mass of Remembrance in November. It is our annual commemoration of parishioners who have died during the past year. This special Mass will take place on Friday, November 8th at 6:00 p.m. Please join us to pray together for our dear departed. After the Mass of Remembrance there will be a reception for the parishioners, their families and friends.

XXXI Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Sunday’s passage tells the story of Jesus’ meeting with Zacchaeus. It is a very touching story, full of character. In that story we could recognize ourselves in it and discover how Jesus has been and continues to be at work in the world.

There are three characters in the story: Zacchaeus, Jesus, and the complainers. Each of these is a universal symbol; all people and all communities have lived the three stories at one time or another.

Zacchaeus is the symbol of those who experience that “salvation” has come to both individuals and communities. We know from our faith that final and complete “salvation” will “come to our house” only at the end of time. In the course of our lives what we have are temporary and partial experiences of salvation.

The story of Zacchaeus tells us that “salvation” is an experience of healing and reconciliation, so deep that we exclaim with gratitude in the words of Jesus, “Today salvation has indeed come to this house”.

Jesus is the symbol of the care-giver, the one who “comes to save what was lost.”

Why Do We Do That?

Catholic Traditions Explained

Question:

Why do we have a liturgical season called ordinary time? Can you explain?

Answer:

Ordinary time is the longest season of the liturgical year. It begins the Monday after January 6, the Epiphany, and goes until the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent. That period can last anywhere from five to eight weeks, depending on when Easter is celebrated. Ordinary time picks up again the Monday after Pentecost Sunday and lasts from twenty-three to twenty-seven weeks, until the end of the liturgical year, the Saturday before Advent begins.

Why the name ordinary? “Ordinary” is not in contrast to “extraordinary” or “special” but rather stresses the Latin language notion of “ordinal” or numbered Sundays. The Latin title for the season, tempus ordinarium, conveys the sense that this time of the year is measured or numbered time. Measured time can allude simply to the numbered Sundays, or the notion that these Sundays are a “measured” time to deepen and immerse ourselves completely in the realities of Jesus’ incarnation, ministry, passion, death, and resurrection. Ordinary time offers us the opportunity to connect the ordinary lived experiences of our lives with those of Jesus, who modeled for us how to live a truly human existence.

The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

The Lateran Basilica, it is the place where the Pope has his “cathedra” or Episcopal throne, has the title “Mother and Head of all the Churches of the City and the World”. On this day we both celebrate and pray for the unity of those churches gathered in communion with successor of Saint Peter. This is a day to reflect on how this building, the cathedrals and churches everywhere are not just meeting-places, but visible signs to the world of the Body of Christ in prayer.

Please Pray for . . .
