Marian Consecration

Our 33 days of preparation for Marian consecration are quickly coming to an end. On Nov. 21, at the 5:30 Mass we will make our consecration to Mary our Mother and Queen. We hope that many who have participated either at the Saturday sessions or at home will be present for this joyous celebration. Please bring the Consecration prayer, which is on the back cover of your booklet and a pen to sign it with. We will have a small reception afterwards. If it is not possible for you to be at this celebration, have a celebration at home. You might have an image of Mary, place a candle and/or flowers before it and reverently pray your consecration. Mary hears your prayer wherever you are so this is just as valid.

Welcome!

*A very warm welcome is extended to all who have come

ADVENT

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Where would you go if the world was ending? What would you do? The last decade has seen a rise in doomsday prepping, the marketing of survival techniques, and a sea of products designed for you to weather the apocalypse. "The days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another that will not be thrown down," Jesus warns in today's Gospel. On the one hand, he is referring to the literal downfall of the city of Jerusalem. Indeed, many of his prophecies here have come true over the last few millennium. Nations have indeed "risen against nations," kingdoms against kingdoms. Surf any world news website today alone, and you will see stories of "powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues." Jesus' advice to His disciples, however, isn't to build a bunker. It's to persevere in faith ... which won't be easy.

"They will seize and persecute you ... you will be handed over ... you will be hated because of my name." This warning, too, has come to pass in the Church throughout history in state-sponsored persecutions and martyrdoms. Jesus is the Messiah, but His first coming was not a coming of earthly victory. Any disciple of His can expect a challenge. The coming of Christ didn't disrupt our free will. Evil still exists and sometimes even appears to triumph. This does not mean God has abandoned His people!

Jesus reminds the disciples — and us — of His constant presence. "I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking." In other Gospel passages, Jesus promises and sends the Holy Spirit upon His followers. The presence of God is real in our lives, no matter what trials come our way. It's tempting to be distracted or dismayed by natural destruction and moral evil in the world. But the Church has weathered greater storms. The sacredness of the human person endures. We can have hope! This day and every day, we can persevere in hope and trust in God.

The Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary

When Mary was asked to be the Mother of the Savior, she was completely free to accept or reject the offer. Her response, "Let it be done to me," was a great act of faith. She replied yes to the angel's announcement and agreed to become the mother of Jesus, and the Church has declared Mary to be the Mother of God. Because she was the first to say yes to the Messiah, the Church has declared her to be the Mother of the Church.

The feast of the Presentation of Mary dates back to the 6th century in the East and the 15th century in the West. It is based on an ancient tradition that says Mary was taken to the temple in Jerusalem when she was 3-years-old and dedicated to God.

What we celebrate on this day is the fact that God chose to dwell in Mary in a very special way. In response, Mary placed her whole self at the service of God. Every moment since your Baptism, God invites you to be open to His grace and dedicate yourself to Him, as Mary did.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

Jesus often preached that His Kingdom is not of this world. He also instructed the disciples that the end of the world as we know it would eventually come but provided no details about the time. For those who are called to live by faith it is not important to know. Cultivating an attitude of trust that God will take care of all things in God's time is the goal of every believer.

XXXIII Niedziela Zwykła

Nadchodzi dzień Pana, dzień sądu, Jezus nie określa dokładnie, kiedy to nastąpi. Wśród znaków i wydarzeń, które go poprzedzą, zapowiada prześladowanie swoich uczniów. Pan jednak stanie przy nich i będzie ich chronił. Podobną wymowę ma prorocstwo Malachiasza, który pociesza i umacnia bojących się Boga i zapowiada objawienie się Bożej sprawiedliwości. Oczekiwanie na spełnienie się tej zapowiedzi nie powinno być jednak przyczyną zaniedbywania ziemskich obowiązków, jak to miało miejsce w przypadku Tesaloniczan.

Módlmy się abyśmy zawsze pamiętali że przez wytrwałość ocalimy nasze życie.
