Live the Liturgy Inspiration for the Week

In today's Gospel, Jesus calls for us to be a sign of God's revelation to the world. We come together today to be enflamed with love for God, that all we encounter might see our light and come to the Father.

”In Giving, We Receive”

Over the next few weeks, you will be hearing about the upcoming Increased Offertory Program at St. Stanislaus Church. This effort is very important as we move forward with the mission and vision of St. Stanislaus Church. We, as a parish family, have changed so many lives in our community! In order to continue our mission and ministries, we encourage all parishioners to spend time in prayer and discussion with your family reflecting on the work we do.

We look forward to seeing all of our parishioners at Mass, especially during our special Commitment Weekend on March 07 & March 08. If you have any questions regarding the Increased Offertory Program, please feel free to contact the parish office at 467-3068.

Stewardship Prayer

Loving God, you are the source of every good gift; gifts of creation that surround us, the mysteries and gifts of human life within. We praise You and thank You for all these treasures, and for Your tender, faithful love.

Center us in gratitude. Open our eyes to how blessed we are, and what a blessing we can be. Teach us the joys of generosity. Give us the courage to give as freely as we have received. Help us to believe, to belong and to make this parish all that it can be.

Together we can accomplish amazing things in Your name. Help us open our hands and hearts, becoming a blessing to others, to Your honor and glory, Amen

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

What does it mean to be salt and light? If we listen carefully to Jesus’ words, we gain some direction. To be salt means to bring taste, zest, and joy to life. We are asked to liven things up a bit by allowing the joy of our faith to spill over into the lives of others. Only a sincere and deep relationship with God can freshen up humanity and set it on proper course. To be light means that our faith must translate into action so that we can be Christ for others and extend the same arm of mercy and compassion that Christ did. Our acts of piety, then, cannot be directed solely at ourselves. Prayer is never about self-benefit but must always be directed toward union with God, deepening our relationships with one another and learning how to be effective stewards of the beautiful universe God has entrusted to our care.

The Master gives us wise direction in terms of how we can best become the salt and light he desires. Listen carefully to the Beatitudes. Think about the oppression and alienation that exists in our world, the violence and prejudice, the anger and the hatred, the fear and the shame. All of these things require action. The poor need food, housing, and clothes. Hatred must be replaced by love. Retaliation and violence by forgiveness. Our thoughts and speech can become more like Christ. We can change and continue to change. Blessed John Henry Cardinal Newman said, “To live is to change and to be perfect is to have changed often.”

But it doesn’t end with just offering the bandages needed to heal wounds. It must go deeper. We must ask ourselves what has happened that we have found ourselves in this place with these wounds and divisions. What are their causes? Together we must address these systemic problems, politically and spiritually, and face the truth. Only then will we truly be salt and light. But then again, we may not like what the light shows us.

Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes and World Day of Prayer for the Sick

On Tuesday, February 11th, the Church will celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes and a World Day of Prayer for the Sick.

Through the intercession of Our Lady of Lourdes, we pray that those who are sick may be healed, and we thank God for those who minister to the sick and show God’s love.

Prayer for the Sick

Jesus Christ,
 Source of Hope and Healing, Source of Peace,
 All over the World we are sending our prayers
 At bedsides, and at altars and in waiting rooms.
 Across the world we light a galaxy of candles
 For those tossed in the rapids of illness...
 For those lost in the maze of addiction...
 For those locked in broken bodies...
 For those caught in the dark night of despair...
 We pray, loosen the grip of pain
 And sooth their suffering.
 Throw open a wide way free...
 A path of kindness and compassion, understanding,
 quiet strength and sweet serenity.
 All over the world we are sending up prayers. Amen

V Niedziela Zwykła

Być uczniem Chrystusa, to wcale nie taka prosta sprawa. Pan Jezus nie na darmo nazwał swoich uczniów solą ziemi. To właśnie oni, czyli ci, którzy słuchają Jego słów i starają się je wypełniać, mają być świeżością tej ziemi i nadawać jej smak. Uczeń Chrystusa ma swoją postawą rozświetlać mroki grzechu. Ma żyć tak, aby inni, krocząc w ciemności, weszli na właściwą drogę. Ma być latarnią wskazującą ścieżkę wiary i miłości. Chrześcijanin ma być jak gwiazda odbijająca światło Chrystusa. Ma żyć Chrystusem i Jego głosić. Mamy być tymi, którzy zachowują ich od zepsucia. Tymi, którzy nie gorszą nikogo ani nie stają się dla nikogo powodem do grzechu. Mamy być wreszcie tymi, którzy wskazują na Chrystusa i drogę, którą winniśmy kroczyć, aby dostać się do obiecanego Raju.

Uczeń Chrystusa ma być światłem dla każdego człowieka bez wyjątku. Nie dla swojej chwały, lecz jak mówi Jezus: aby widzieli wasze dobre uczynki i chwalili Ojca waszego, który jest w niebie. Wszystko, co uda mi się dobrego zrobić, powiedzieć, dać świadectwo, ma stać się nie powodem mojej chwały, lecz chwały Ojca, który mnie powołał do istnienia. Zatem każdy mój dobry uczynek niech się stanie powodem do chwaleń Boga, aby i inni poznali, że bez Niego nic nie mogę uczynić.

Recepta na dobre życie tkwi w wierności przykazaniom Bożym i wyczuleniu na drugiego człowieka, szczególnie tego będącego w potrzebie. Izajasz dziś naucza: „dziel swój chleb z głodnymi, wprowadź w dom biednych tułaczy, nagiego, którego ujrzysz, przyodziej, i nie odwróć się od współziomków”. Wtedy okaże się prawdziwa sprawiedliwość i „chwała Pana iść będzie za tobą” Módlmy się abyśmy przez całe życie byli solą ziemi i światłem świata.

Światowy Dzień Modlitwy za Chorych

We wtorek 11 lutego Kościół będzie obchodził Święto Matki Bożej z Lourdes i Światowy Dzień Modlitwy za Chorych.

Za wstawiennictwem Matki Bożej z Lourdes modlimy się, aby chorzy zostali uzdrowieni i dziękujemy Bogu za tych, którzy służą chorym i okazują Bożą miłość.
